ULTIMATUM MAY DESTROY PEACE

To Be Served by Great Britain on France and Threatens to Divide Europe Into Hostile Camps

NO POSSIBILITY OF WAR SEEN

Paris Government May Decide to Support Poincare and Throw France Against Russian

(By United Press)

An ultimatum to be served upon France by Great Britain against an invasion of Germany is threatening to break up Europe into a new alignment of hostile powers.

Lloyd George has challenged Premier Poincare to carry out his policy of nationalist imperialism. If the Paris government decides to support Poincare's desire to see France thrown against the Russians, and seize German territory for full payment of France's war claim, Great Britain will go to Germany's help.

There is not a possibility of the British declaring war against the French, but Great Britain has in her hands financial control over the greater part of Europe, including France. This is due to Britain's loan to her allies.

BY HENRY WOOD

Genoa, April 28.—The next move at Genoa is strictly up to Premier Poincare of France.

Uncertainty as to the attitude of the French prime minister leaves the various threads of the economic conference disunited and awry.

The sub commission which was to have met at 11 o'clock today, to discuss the Russian situation postponed its meeting at the last minute.

Aside from further discussion of the terms of the allied note to Russia, the machinery of the conference was at a standstill early today.

Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation, was in constant and lengthy communication with Poincare today. The premier summoned the head of the French delegation to return to Paris and explain how things were going, but Barthou was reported to be hesitant about leaving Genoa until after he has found out just what is the official French attitude toward the note to Russia.

L. P. NEWBY IS ELECTED

Knightstown Man Well Known Here Heads Knights Templar Order

Leonidas P. Newby of Knightstown, well known here, was elected Thursday to the office of the most excellent grand master of the Knights Templar Order in the United States, at the thirty-fifth triennial convocation of the order which is nearing a close of the session at New Orleans. It is considered a very great honor to be elected to this office and the Indiana delegation exerted all their efforts to that end.

The Indiana delegation which went on a special train, was headed by the Orphans Home band of northern Rush county, near Knightstown, which made the trip to the southern city.

The next convocation will be held at Seattle, it was decided at the meeting yesterday.

AUTHORIZES ISSUE OF 30 MILLION DOLLARS

Public Service Commission Sanctions Step by Northern Indiana Gas And Electric Company

TO IMPROVE SOME OF PLANTS

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 28.—An issue of approximately thirty million dollars worth of securities by the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric Company to reorganize its financial structure and improve its plants in some of the 37 cities where it operates, was authorized by the public service commission today.

It was the largest issue of securities ever approved by the public service commission and is for the purpose of refinancing the organization to meet new conditions.

Most of the money will be issued in refunding bonds and mortgages. Part of it will be spent in paying for improvements and extensions already made on the property and part of it for contemplated extension.

Provision was made to use $2, 115,000 for improvements from December 31, 1918 to December 1, 1922. By this system of refinancing the company will get out from under a heavy burden of securities which it has been carrying and will be free from annual interest charge of $526,000.

Government Inspectors Comment on Collapse of Ohio River Boat

(By United Press)

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 28.—Government inspectors investigating the Island Queen, on which President Harding and party were scheduled to journey to Point Pleasant, yesterday, admitted today they considered the accident in which 20 persons were injured "suspicious."

Officials pointed out the boat has a capacity of 3,000 and only about half that number were aboard when supports gave way and upper decks crashed, seriously injuring three persons.

President Harding and his party by a last minute change in plans made the trip in a government tug.

ASKS NOMINATION ON FORMER RECORD

Albert J. Beveridge Discusses Issues of Primary Campaign in Eloquent Address Here

LIKE COMING HOME, HE SAYS

Judge Arthur Robinson Flays Marion County Political Machine For Its Tactics in Past

Albert J. Beveridge, candidate for the republican nomination for the United States senate, and Judge Arthur R. Robinson of Indianapolis, were here Thursday afternoon in addresses in behalf of Mr. Beveridge's candidacy. The former senator laid stress on the fact that he was seeking the nomination on his former record, while Judge Robinson scored the record made by Harry S. New during his 5 1/2 years in the senate, and who is again seeking the nomination.

The meeting was held in the court room which was packed with people, and Beveridge did not conclude his address until 5:15, holding the crowd with his eloquent speech.

Judge Robinson addressed the audience first and paved the way for Mr. Beveridge, who put forth the platform upon which he is seeking the nomination. He spoke as if he were very confident of winning a majority at the primary election on Tuesday.

Former Senator Beveridge in opening his address, stated that it was like coming home again, to speak in Rush county, because this was the first place where he had delivered a political speech, many years ago, when John K. Gowdy was county chairman, and that he also felt that he was at home, because this was the abode of his personal friend, Senator James E. Watson.

He stated that he had been wrongfully accused by his opponents of being a pro-German during the war, but that these accusations were false, and that he had entered the campaign determined to cause a show down. He cited the fact that even George Washington had been accused of being a traitor and forger and that people even pointed to Thomas Jefferson, as being immoral, and charges of other kinds had been made against the late Theodore Roosevelt. The speaker stated that all of these charges had been lived down, and the falseness of them exposed.

He stated that he was not appearing at this time with any political promises, as to what his platform would consist of, but he had made up his mind that one of the first bills he would push, would be the Dyer anti-lynching bill, to protect the colored people, and which bill has been in a committee room for so long a time without any action.

"This is a most curious and important campaign," he continued, "and it is the most important one that I have ever participated in. There are many mighty problems, complex and difficult as well as tremendous, which confront us today. The most mighty of these is the much discussed question, 'How can we revive business?'"

"I'm against all blocs," the former Senator continued, "and in this connection I want to say that I am open to any counsel from these blocs, but I will not take any orders from any of them." In this connection he referred to the "farm bloc" and pointed out that some of the senators had been dictated to, and that they were not guided by their own desires.

"Did you ever stop to think that the people in America should have a good time all of the time," he asserted, after picturing the ideal location of this continent, and the foundation upon which the principle of our government were formed, and which had been enveloped in so many laws to prevent the good time." A law that is good in principle and is beneficial to all of the people and not merely a part of the people, is truly a good law, but one which benefits only a part of the people, and lays a burden on the rest, is one of the ways that the people in this country do not have that good time, which they should."

PLAY PLEASAS A LARGE AUDIENCE

"The Far Away Princess" Will be Repeated Tonight by Rushville High School Seniors

A ROMANTIC COMEDY TO MUSIC

Stage Settings and Costumes Add to Attractiveness of Annual Senior Class Offering

"The Far Away Princess," a romantic comedy with music was presented by the graduating class of the Rushville high school at the Graham Annex auditorium Thursday night before an appreciative audience and will be repeated again tonight. There were a few empty seats in the rear on the first floor at the premier, but all of the choice seats were taken.

The play was rearranged and directed by Denning Havens of this city, who also supplied the special musical numbers and choruses. The scenes are all laid in the garden of Madame Linderman's "Dew-Drop Inn" in the Arcadian mountains and the action centers about Princess Marie Louise of Geldren, which part was well taken by Miss Rowena Kennedy, and the hidden treasure which is supposed to be buried in the mountains.

All of the people in the community are silent worshippers at the shrine of the princess, who keeps her royal reserve and never appears in public. The news that she is coming to "Dew-Drop Inn" incognito somehow leaks out and the interest among the natives is intense.

The key to the buried treasure is secreted in a set of books left by the grandfather of Prince Orloff, the part of the prince being well acted by William Kramer. Orloff attempts to recover the books from the maid, Rosina (Miss Helen Behout) at "Dew-Drop Inn" but finds that she has previously sold them to George Brent (William Sparks) a lawyer. With womanly curiosity, however, Rosina examined the volumes after Madame Linderman had purchased them at auction, and discovers therein the map showing the location of the buried treasure.

When she learns the identity of Prince Orloff and his interest in the books, Rosina shares the secret with him and the prince goes in search of the treasure. He locates the spot and digs lustily, only to find a letter from his grandfather, telling him that the secret to success is fresh air, good health and honest work. The prince is rewarded, however, because it develops that Brent is the representative of his grandfather's estate and the will provided that Orloff should have all the wealth if he persisted in finding the treasure and showed himself a willing worker.

Pedro, a student, played by Loren Hunt, was a silent worshipper at the shrine of the princess, and unwittingly told her of his admiration. She later reveals her identity, which proves very disconcerting to Pedro. Mrs. LeShell (Helen Pierson) an ambitious mother, and her two daughters, Marcelle (Martha Fanning) and Felice (Margaret Herkless) are also seekers after the favor of the princess.

Sam Williams (Carroll Nipp), an American sheriff, provides a good bit of comedy and is ably assisted by Juliano Linderman, the hen-pecked husband of the inn-keeper (John Ryan). Sam works up a plot whereby he pictures Orloff as a robber and a murderer, but nothing ever comes of it.

The third separate romance of the play develops between Marie, a flower girl at the inn, (Helen Gray) and Greyson, a surveyor (Louis Smith) who came to the Arcadian mountains in search of the treasure also. He represents a New York firm and is likewise disappointed by the discovery of the buried treasure.

The part of Jack McKee, a guest at the inn, is played by William Frazee, and Ivan Alexander appears in the dual role of an assistant surveyor and lackey to the princess. Horace Pearsey takes well the part of Tony, the music man, who sings well. Baroness Brook (Virginia Haydon) as the waiting maid to the princess, protects her royal high-

TRYING TO CATCH THIEVES

John Knecht's Stolen Car Will Not Be Returned For Few Days

John A. Knecht, local automobile dealer, who was notified Wednesday by Robert Humes, chief of the state automobile police, that a new Buick five-passenger touring car had been stolen from his storage room here recently, said today that the machine would not be returned to him for a few days on account of an effort which is being made to catch the thieves. The car was found at Henryville, Ind., and it is thought that the culprits may return there for it.

Mr. Knecht said the car had been stolen during the last ten days as he checked his machines in storage one week ago Saturday and none was missing then.

BODY FOUND IN A CHURCH BASEMENT

Gertrude Hanna, Choir Girl, Believed to Have Met Death at Hands of Her Betrayer

HELD PRISONER MANY DAYS

Police Theory is That Death Was Due to Overdose of Chloroform Administered to Her

(By United Press)

Hoopeston, Ill., April 28.—Gertrude Hanna, choir girl, met death while her betrayer attempted to force her to undergo an illegal operation, evidence indicated today.

Her lover not wishing to carry out a probable promise of marriage, held the girl prisoner for several days and administered chloroform with the intentions of performing the operation while she was unconscious, according to the theory of Chief of Police Bogart.

Death was caused accidentally by an overdose of chloroform, Bogart believed and the murderer hid the body in the basement of the United Presbyterian church, where it was found by carpenters.

Search was being made throughout Hoopeston and outlying territory for deserted house where officials believe the girl had a rendezvous with her lover and where she met her death.

A half dozen young men whose names were connected with that of the girl in gossip were quizzed today, but all denied any knowledge of the murder.

The girl's body was not in the basement a week ago, J. M. Strong, a prominent citizen of Hoopeston, told the authorities.

"I went all through the parsonage searching for a lawn mower, which I had loaned the pastor, a year ago," Strong said.

"I searched the basement carefully and I am sure I would have seen the body had it been there."

As evidence was gradually compiled, suspicion of authorities were being concentrated on one elderly person who had been attentive to Gertrude. This man had been thrown into company with the slain girl frequently at the church. He was also acquainted with the details of the arrangement of the parsonage.

FIVE PROMINENT PROTESTANTS KILLED

Murders in County Cork Thursday Night Apparently Reprisals For Killing of Catholics in Belfast

REBELS LEAVE MULLINGAR

(By United Press)

Cork, April 28.—Five prominent protestants were murdered at Ballinacorney and Clonakilly, in County Cork last night. The murders were apparently in reprisal for the killing of Catholics in Belfast. All protestants have been ordered to leave Dunmanway, County Cork, where three were shot dead Wednesday night.

Dublin, April 28.—General Major Keown, the "blacksmith of Blinalee," commanding Free State troops at Mullingar today had cleared the last rebel from the battle area where three were killed and a dozen wounded in fighting yesterday.

The general's ultimatum to the insurgent troops holding the county hall at Mullingar—"to get out or be blown out"—was answered promptly by rebel evacuation last night. Free state troops followed up their victory and swept the area clear, making a considerable haul of arms and ammunition.

CONDITION IS CRITICAL.

Mrs. Charles A. Frazee who has been ill for several days, was reported this afternoon to be in a serious condition with little hopes maintained for her recovery. She has been removed from her home to the Sexton hospital for treatment, after having been brought home from Indianapolis where she was treated in the Methodist hospital.

He pointed out that there were three important problems that confront the nation within the next six years, and that there were the expense of government, the question of taxation and the transportation problems. These factors when brought down to a sound basis, will bring about the readjustment of business, he said.

"I am for the cutting of government expense, and cutting it down to the bone," he continued, "and I would start at the bottom. All of the useless employees should be discharged, and it will not be until about twenty thousand leeches on the government payroll are sent back to do honest toil, that the expenses of government operation can be lowered."

He pointed out that the most curious system of taxation is employed in this country. It was created during the war, when it was decided that wealth should bear the burden of taxation.

"But now," Mr. Beveridge continued, "that the war is over and business has come to a standstill, what becomes of our taxes?" He also outlined the fact that taxes went for government expenses and that if the expense of government operation were lessened, the burden of taxation would decrease. For a remedy of the tax law, he suggested the sales tax plan, in which every item is taxed excepting farm products, until the farmer gets his business back to normal. He favors an exemption of $10,000 for farmers, he said.

He also pointed out that transportation concerns everyone, and that the rates should be lessened in order to make business stable.

The meeting was largely attended here and people were turned away from the court house, unable to get in. Judge Robinson spoke first, and in a stirring address, said in part: "The Jewett-Lemeke machine hounded James E. Watson throughout the primary campaign of nineteen sixteen and then after Watson had decisively defeated New in the state, the nomination was stolen from him in Indianapolis. After the machine had counted him out, certain of the machine tools had the temerity to boast of it and even to go into detail as to how it had been done."

"In nineteen twenty, however, the Jewett-Lemeke machine overplayed their hand. They pursued the same tactics against Warren T. McCray for the gubernatorial nomination, but the people rebuked the machine; they were thoroughly beaten and landed on the scrap heap.

"Last year in the city campaign they again attempted to dictate to the people of Indianapolis, and again they were rebuked for Lew Shank was elected mayor by the un-

Cave Man Stuff

BACK near the beginning of things, our prehistoric forebears would have perished from the earth if they had not understood the science of reading advertising.

The cavemen didn't know much about underwear, hair tonic or phonographs, but they did have to eat. The one who could follow the tracks of the game he hunted, or read the meaning of a twisted leaf or broken twig, was best off in life.

Then as now, the most consistent reader of advertising was best dressed, best fed and most contented.

There has been something of an evolution in advertising in the last few thousand years, but the principle is just the same.

The consistent reader of the advertisements is invariably best informed on what to eat and where to get it; what to wear and how much to pay for it; what to do and how to do it. He's up on the most important things in life. Consequently he gets most from life.

Throughout the ages, advertising has done much to make life livable and pleasant. We owe it much.

Let's make the most of it.

precedented majority of twenty-three hundred. Thoroughly repudiated and discredited, the Jewett-Lemeke machine now tries to regain control of the Republican party organization in Marion county by espousing the cause of Harry S. New and again they are doomed to humiliating disaster.

"The people are sick and tired of that whole outfit and this is one of the reasons why Albert J. Beveridge will be nominated next Tuesday by an enormous majority. The Jewett-Lemeke machine with their 'rule or ruin' policy will not be permitted to wreck the Republican party, and Harry C. New can lay his defeat in the primaries next week very largely to the unholly activities of this crowd."

Why Women Get Despondent

Are not women naturally as light-hearted, brave and hopeful as men? Yes, certainly; but a woman's organism is essentially different from a man's—more delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent, more nervous, more irritable and more despondent. When a woman develops nervousness, sleeplessness, backaches, headaches, dragging down pains and melancholia she should lose no time in giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial, as it will quickly dispel such troubles. This root and herb medicine contains no drugs and has been the standby of American womanhood for nearly fifty years.

The musical numbers are woven into the plot smoothly, the show opening with a chorus of popular songs. Miss Gray and Horace Pearson are fine in "Play That Song of India Again," and are ably assisted by a gypsy chorus composed of Razora Chance, Dorothy Brecheisen, Marie Hobbs and Aileen Geraghty. Carroll Nipp found the audience very receptive when he sang "Ain't Nature Grand" and Miss Haydon was also good in "Plantation Lullabye."

The second act also opened with a chorus of popular songs and Miss Norris sang "Castle of Dreams" well. Miss Kennedy had only one song, "Bring Back My Blushing Rose," which was exceedingly well done. Miss Kennedy's interpretation of the part and her singing deserved all of the applause she received. Her selection was made more attractive by the rose chorus composed of Mary Walker, Laura Jordan, Margaret Bell and Marcia Kendall.

The high school orchestra under the direction of Miss Sarah I. McConnell, played before the opening of the show and between acts. Miss Herkless at the piano and Miss Gladys Tittsworth provided the accompaniments for the musical numbers.

The scenery was especially attractive and disclosed the artistic ability of Mr. Havens, who also designed the costumes used in the rose chorus. The flowers were made by the girls of the graduating class and Mrs. LaVerne Farthing. The garden wall and the front of the inn were made by the manual training department of the high school under the supervision of M. E. Cook. Mrs. Farthing was the business manager. The furniture used on the stage was provided by George C. Wyatt and company and the piano was provided by the Boxley Piano company.

AMUSEMENTS

Vaudeville and Pictures — Princess.

The week-end theatre goers will again be entertained Friday and Saturday at the Princess with a good program of pictures and two acts of high class vaudeville. The vaudeville acts this week consists of Waterall and Winifred in a singing, talking and jabbering act, and they come here from an engagement at the Circle theatre in Indianapolis. Alfredo, a musical rube act, also comes highly recommended. Marie Provost will be seen in a picture, "Nobody's Fool," and a comedy featuring Snooky, the human ape, entitled "Snooky's Fresh Heir," will complete the bill.

"The Struggle" Coming.

The world over the great plains of America are looked upon as a rampant playground for romance and adventure. The coolies of Shanghai, follow the career of the deep-dyed villain and the handsome hero with the same breathless attention as do the young scions of the rich of Fifth Avenue.

Beginning Saturday all the movie lovers of Rushville will have the pleasure of seeing a picture which is considered as typifying the romance and adventure of the great West.

The management of the Mystic theatre has succeeded in securing for a limited engagement Franklin Farnum in his latest super Western picture, "The Struggle."

The story of this remarkable picture production is surcharged to the fullest degree with the prairie atmosphere of adventure and daring. Hair-raising feats of prowess follow each other in quick succession. In contrast to the wild horsemanship of the plains has been added the picturesque background of the foothills of the Rockies where in canyon and ravine, a tale of swift moving action, of heroism, of ardent love making and dashing dare deviltry is enacted.

The author and director of "The Struggle" have skillfully woven into the brisk story an element of humanness which has seldom been attained in photoplays dealing with Western subjects.

A Dog's Devotion.

Lovers of dogs will be interested in the story told at an inquest at the London hospital on the body of a man who committed suicide by throwing himself out of a window. In a letter written just before his death he wrote: "My dog Teddy follows me about. He knows things are very bad with me. I do hope he will be taken care of. As I pace up and down my room he walks with me." A witness said that the dog was very fond of his master and always seemed to understand when he was worried and in trouble.

The Habit Clinic

The bulletin of the Massachusetts Society for Mental Hygiene tells of a habit clinic conducted at the South Bay Union Settlement in Boston, in charge of a director of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital. The purpose of the habit clinic is "to nip in the bud habits and tendencies leading to later nervous breakdown." It is suggested that at such a clinic, under expert treatment, a person might be cured of those eccentricities of manner which sometimes annoy friends or relatives.

However much like a joke all this sounds, it possesses great possibilities of helpfulness. A considerable portion of the patients are children, and the case workers in the habit clinic go into the homes of seriously afflicted boys and girls to seek fundamental causes. Such a cause may be an over-indulgent parent or one too rigidly exacting. Frequently the most beneficial treatment for the child is the education of the parents in things relating to the child's mental and spiritual life.

Children treated so far have fallen naturally into three main groups: those who have poor habits of eating

Are You An Ailing Woman?

Here is Most Vital and Important Advice.

South Bend, Ind.—"I was in very poor health with a complication of ailments brought on by inward weakness, when my children were small, and it was Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription that restored me to health after all other doctors had failed. I have recommended this medicine to many ailing women and I have never had one come back to me and complain that the favorite prescription had not helped her. But many times I have heard them say, 'Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine I have ever taken.'—Mrs. Jennie Dickerson, 917 Stanfield St.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has made many women happy by making them healthy. Get it at once from your nearest druggist, in either liquid or tablet form, or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalid Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., and write for free medical advice.

What this country is suffering from is an excess of oratory and a shortage of sweat.

The earlier you begin to behave yourself, the longer you will live.

Wisdom begins when you reach the point where you can distinguish between conversation and fact.

Instead of asking you, "What have you done?" the world asks you, "What have you got?"

Department stores seem to have gotten the idea of "sacrifices" from the Old Testament.

ing and sleeping, those with disordered mental life and those with motor defects, such as muscular twitching.

Any such work is slow in producing results, but definite improvement has been reported in various cases. At any rate, it is an important effort.

Perhaps misunderstood children are not so numerous as is sometimes thought. But wherever there is a misunderstood child or one who is having nervousness and bad temper forced on it by ignorant, careless or indifferent grown-ups, there is a real tragedy. Such an effort as that made by the habit clinic is highly commendable.

Americanizing England

J. B. Wilson, son of a British labor leader, who is in New York getting some ideas on American manners and customs, says that the Britishers are aping Americans. All well and good. If they take up with our good habits and fail to recognize the traits which do not recommend themselves as good, they may be accomplishing something worthwhile.

Mr. Wilson says that the English are wearing American shoes—have been for some time, and that they are just now trying out the style of wearing silk socks. They will never find better shoes than those made in America, and they will also find silk socks to their liking, providing their pocketbooks can stand the strain.

But it is very likely that the worst in American life will be borrowed by our brothers across the sea. They like our jazz, it seems, and have actually incorporated so much of the U. S. A. pep that they dance until 3 a. m. to American music.

There are a few things they can have and welcome to them. We would like to see them take a little of our crime wave and try it out across the sea; also some of our demagogues in political life and some of our labor leaders who want to raise wages and lessen working hours at the expense of the public purse.

H.S. STARS MAY SET BETTER MARKS

If Track at Earlham is as Fast as Predicted, High Schools Will Break Records

STATE MEET SET FOR MAY 20

Phillips of Rushville is Mentioned as Having Made Wonderful Record in Mile Run

By HEZE CLARK
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 28.—Interest in the high school sectional track and field meets to be held throughout the state this year centers on the fact that, each year the stars get better marks.

This interest was aroused by the announcement of May 13, as the latest date the men may qualify.

The records set by the Hoosier thin elads compare favorably with the record set by the best athletes in the country.

The state championship high school track meet will be held at Richmond May 20. If the track is as fast as Coach Ray Mow of Earlham says it is, there will be some new time records set. The record of ten seconds in the hundred yard dash set years ago has been equalled twice since that time when Balir of Hammond first made the century mark but no high school boy has lowered it and probably never will. Gray of Technical high, Indianapolis, last year won the finals of the 100-yard in the state meet in 10 and four-fifths seconds, and took first in the 220-yard in 23 seconds.

Velsay of Manual high, Indianapolis, who made the 120 high hurdle in 17 and two-fifths seconds a year ago should lower that mark also a second this year. Marks of Wabash high school looks like the man that should set a new record this season.
Marks twice broke the low hurdle record last year in the heats but failed to win his event as he tripped and fell in the final heat.

Phillips of Rushville high school made wonderful time last year in the mile, covering the distance in four minutes 41 and four-fifths seconds and was not pressed. Several distance men in the state this year may beat that time. Stanates the little Warsaw runner is still in school and looks good in the 440-yard dash. He did 50 and four-fifths seconds last year.

ARLINGTON TO MEET
HERCULES BALL CLUB

Athletic Club Hopes to Annex Another Game Next Sunday on Its Home Diamonds

WARMOUTH TO BE ON MOUND

The Arlington Athletic Club hopes to annex another game Sunday when they meet the Hercules ball club on the ground at Arlington. The Athletic club defeated the Marmon 34's in a well played game last Sunday 6 to 4. Warmouth, who pitched against Rushville, will be on the mound again for Arlington.

The Hercules have always been a strong team and last season won 25 out of 27 games. The Arlington team has been doing extensive improvement to their new athletic field east of the gymnasium. They have much to do yet but the new field is already much better than the old one. The management announces that the admission prices this year will be:
men 25 cents; ladies free; autos 10 cents; grand stand 10 cents, and the war tax included.

The schedule is as follows for the first few games: May 7 and 14, open; May 21, Indianapolis Southern Grays at Arlington; May 28, at Greenfield; June 4, Selmiers at Arlington.

The Score Board

Yesterdays hero—Wielding a wicket willow, Grimes won his second game for the Cubs. He tied the score with a homer and drove in two more runs with a single, the Cubs beating the Cards, 6 to 4.

After Zachary and Courtney had been knocked out of the box, Erickson held the Athletics to two hits in the last five innings and the Senators won 9 to 3.

Johnny Evers played his first game in the American League while Collins was laid up and accepted six chances without an error, the White Sox holding the Indians to a 6-6 draw.

Andy High with a homer, a double and a single led the Brooklyn attack which mangled three pitchers for sixteen hits and beat the Braves, 12 to 5.

Wingo hit a homer and helped the Reds beat the Pirates 8 to 5.

The Giants hit two Philly pitchers for 13 hits and 19 bases and were easily winners 10 to 5.

STAR OF DUAL TRACK MEET

Stanley Horrall, Formerly of This City, on Connersville Team

Stanley Horrall of Connersville, with Manual of Indianapolis, winning the 100 yard dash, the 440 yard run and the broad jump. His time was as follows: 100 yard dash, 10 and two-fifths seconds; 440 yard run, 54 and four-fifths seconds, and distance in the broad jump was 20 feet, six inches.

Connersville won the meet 66 to 33, and it was the first time in seven years that the Indianapolis school has lost a dual meet.

SOCIETY

Edited By Miss Edna Krammes

Mrs. R. C. Dora and daughter Miss Clara Dora, Miss Stella Shortridge and Mrs. Ida Shortridge of Glenwood were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan of North Main street Thursday.

Mrs. Howard Ewbank was hostess to the members of the Yomo club Thursday afternoon at her home northeast of the city. A delightful social afternoon was enjoyed by the guests and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Honoring the last day of school, the pupils and patrons of the Apple-gate school enjoyed a bountiful pitch-in dinner today at noon at the school building. In the afternoon a short program was given by the pupils. Miss Bertha Moore is the teacher.

About twenty-five guests delightfully surprised Mrs. Walter A. Smith last evening at her home in North Harrison street, honoring her birthday anniversary. The evening was enjoyed with games, music and dancing. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the party.

Mrs. Mary E. Jarrett and Mrs. Tribby of East Main street, Manilla, entertained the following guests with a dinner party last Sunday: Mrs. Tribby's brother, Mr. Conoway and family of Carthage and Mrs. Jarrett's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Indianapolis. The latter have just returned from Fort Worth, Texas, where they attended the wedding of their son, George.

Much business was transacted at the regular meeting of the W. R. C. held Wednesday afternoon in the G. A. R. room of the court house. At that time it was decided to serve a banquet Saturday evening at six o'clock to the members of the P. O. S. of A. in their hall in North Main street. All members are urged to contribute to the donations of food and are requested to call Mrs. James Gregg as to information of the menu to be served.

Mattox Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., celebrated the 100th birthday anniversary of Gen. U. S. Grant in a very appropriate manner last night in the assembly room of the court house. Mrs. Carl Beher sang two very beautiful solos, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Jess Pugh. Frances Eloise and Bonnie Jean Beale were very heartily received when they sang a duet accompanied by Maxine Brown, and Mary Elizabeth Beale gave a monologue which was very much enjoyed by all.

A very able address was made by the Rev. C. S. Black giving a brief sketch of the life of Grant, touching on his life as a general and hero of the Civil war. He pointed out his traits as a man of bravery and high ideals and one that kept cool and reserved in a great crisis.

The Rev. Mr. Black commended the organization for preserving and setting forth the high principles exemplified by the life of such a noble, courageous and uplifting character as that of Ulysses S. Grant. He related many incidents in the life of Grant showing him to be worthy of all honor.

Senator Watson Says Senate Committee Will Get His Approval

(By United Press)
Washington, April 28.—The Senate's bonus bill will be laid before President Harding before any further steps are taken by the finance committee, Senator Watson, Indiana, announced today.

Soon after Harding returns to Washington, McCumber and Smoot will seek his approval of their "compromise" bonus plan, which they believe eliminates the features of the House bill to which Harding objected.

THANK OFFERING SERVICE.

SHOWS NO IMPROVEMENT.

Mrs. J. M. Depweg of North Morgan Street, who has been seriously ill for the past ten days, shows no improvement.

DOMINANT STYLES

The tuxedo and the slip-on are the two dominating styles in sweaters, each of them made in many variations of color, weave and materials. A handsome tuxedo, knitted of wool yarn, appears above in a sweater that reveals the effective use of a fancy weave in the body of the garment and the employment of contrasting color.

Original "Rivals."

A rival was originally any person who used the same stream. As experience shows, there is no such fruitful source of contention as a water-right. Neighbors would be often at strife with one another in regard of the period during which they severally had a right to the use of the stream; turning it off into their own fields before the time; leaving open the sluices beyond the time; or in other ways interfering with the rights of each other. So it was that "rivals" came to be applied to any who were in competition with one another.

Locating Early Causes Way to Cut Death Rate

Of all the plagues that have afflicted mankind since the world began none is more deadly or costly than tuberculosis, not infrequently termed the "Great White Plague." Other scourges, ancient and modern, have swept over the country or a community for a few weeks, months or years, striking down its victims. Tuberculosis has kept up its terrible ravages for more than 2,500 years, leaving misery, death and desolation in its path.

In the United States alone tuberculosis takes a toll of 150,000 persons every year.

One person dies every three and one-half minutes, 17 every hour and over 400 every day.

According to a careful estimate there are at least 1,000,000 active cases of tuberculosis in the United States at this time.

In that many people do not know that they have this disease, it is difficult to get a close estimate of the number of inactive cases of it. The health demonstration at Framington, Mass., where a whole city put itself in the care of physicians in order to promote health and further scientific investigation, has revealed that there are about 15 cases of tuberculosis for every death. This would indicate a total of over 2,000,000 cases in this country, of which 1,000,000 are probably active.

Inactive cases may at any time become active cases by weakness due to some other disease, or by a cold, or some unusual physical strain.

No disease that afflicts mankind is more insidious than tuberculosis. It strikes silently and surely and often has been long at work before discovered.

A large majority of the cases are those of persons who are not aware that they have it. Draft boards and army doctors discovered more than 100,000 cases among the young men, who were registrants during the war the pick of the country, who thought they were fit to fight for it.

The plague of tuberculosis is the greatest single cause of death in the United States. According to authentic report one-tenth of all the men, women and children who die each year are victims of this disease.

Most of these who die from tuberculosis are taken in the prime of life. One-third of all who die between the ages of 15 and 45 years are killed by tuberculosis.

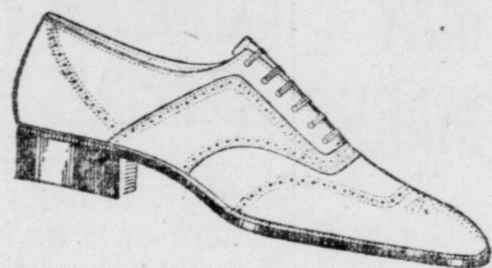

Tuberculosis is clearly a preventable disease and it is possible to stop the awful sacrifice of 150,000 lives annually in this country. To bring about this result individuals must co-operate with all the agencies now waging a war on this dread disease. Fresh air, cleanliness, destruction of the germ-laden sputum of those afflicted with consumption and wholesome food are particularly essential in the matter of prevention as well as that of cure.

One way of cutting down the death rate of tuberculosis is to find the early cases. An early examination, therefore, is most important toward controlling the spread of the disease. To find these early cases the Rush County Tuberculosis Association will hold a clinic on May 1, at Rushville from 10 to 12 and 2 to 5 o'clock. The clinic will be free and will be held at office of Dr. J. M. Lee. The attending physician will be Dr. James H. Stygall, of Indianapolis, medical director of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association, who has given many years of study to this problem and who is considered one of the leading experts in this part of the country.

UNEMPLOYMENT IS ON THE INCREASE

Strikes Swell Total Which Previously Had Been Lowered by Activity or Commissions

3,800,000 ARE OUT OF WORK

Situation Among Unemployed Not on Strike is Much Improved—150 Applicants For Every 100 Jobs

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 28.—Unemployment is on the brink of a new high fluctuation—with possibly 3,800,000 men out of work in the United States—according to official government estimates here today. Strikes have swelled the total which previously had been lowered by the activity of the government unemployment commissions.

The nation wide coal walkout made more than 700,000 men jobless, according to conservative estimates which include striking miners and those in other industries who have been forced out of work by local shortages of fuel.

The textile strike in New England brought voluntarily unemployment to some 25,000; the building trades walkout in Chicago caused seven thousand more to cease work while smaller strikes in various sections of the country have brought the estimated total of men now out on strike in the country to more than 800,000. These are estimates of the labor department.

The department of commerce estimates that there are still nearly 3,000,000 men out of work involuntarily.

The situation among those unemployed not on strike is much improved, according to Col. Arthur Woods, chief of the president's conference on unemployment. Based on percentages there are 150 applicants now for every 100 jobs open, Woods said, while in January there were 226 applicants for every 100 jobs.

Following out these figures Woods has concluded that jobs have been found for approximately 630,000 persons.

Further emphasizing the improved situation among the unwillingly unemployed, Woods declared that while in January there were 38 applicants placed out of every 100 who applied in April, the number had gone up to 50.

FEDERAL CONTROL OF WIRELESS SUGGESTED

Distribution of Wave Lengths, Creation of Board. Full Government Authority Authorized

RESULT OF RADIO CONFERENCE

(By United Press)

Washington, April 28.—Recommendations providing for virtual federal control of all wireless telephones in the country were presented to Secretary of Commerce Hoover today.

The recommendations which are to be submitted to congress, provide for distribution of wave length, creation of a supervising board of 12 men under Secretary Hoover and full government authority over government radiophones.

They are the final recommendations of the government radio conference here for several weeks to find ways and means of regulating wireless traffic.

The plan makes Secretary Hoover supreme chief of "ether cops" with full authority to govern the development of the wireless phone as he sees fit.

The general allocation of wave lengths provide:

Trans oceanic service 6,000 meters; fixed radio telephony, non exclusive 3,300; Mobile service non exclusive 2,650; government broadcasting 2,050; aircraft 1,550; city and state public safety broadcasting exclusive 285; amateur 275.

RED CROSS ON THE JOB

Chicago, Apr. 28.—Flood refugees driven from their homes along the Mississippi and Illinois rivers were amply supplied with food and clothing today, the Central division of the Red Cross announced. Relief workers in a dozen Illinois towns, whose citizens were made destitute by overflowing streams, have the situation well in hand, it was said.

The Woman's Missionary Society of The Raleigh Christian Church will hold a chicken market, Sat. April 29th, at Wiltse's 5 and 10 Cent Store. 39:2

DOUBLE SIZE OF DURANT PLANT

Ground Broken Wednesday Noon for New Buildings; Auto Body Gets Star Body Job; New Closed Body Plant for Lansing Seen; To Add Men; Big Production Spurt Launched.

Ground was broken at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for an addition to the Lansing plant of the Durant Motor Co., which will double the floor space of the local factory and pave the way for daily production of 400 Durant Star cars and 200 four-cylinder Durant machines.

Construction of this big, new addition will provide for the employment of two-thirds more than the number of men that had originally been planned, it is announced by Carroll Downes, vice-president of the Michigan company. Contract for the construction work has been awarded to the Christman Construction Co., through its local manager, Harry Conrad.

Start Production Soon

The Lansing plant will start the manufacture of Star cars during May and work will be speeded up so that the output will total 400 cars each day by the last of August. The original plans called for the production of only 200 of these machines daily, but on checking up production figures at the New York offices of the Durant Corporation, it has been found that it will be necessary to double the output here.

In addition to the manufacture of Star cars, production has been climbing rapidly in the output of the Durant four-cylinder cars and before the end of the summer it is planned to make 200 of these machines daily.

Award Local Contracts

Contracts were to be signed Wednesday with the Auto Body Co. for the manufacture of all open car jobs for the new Star cars which will be made here.

W. V. C. Jackson, head of the Auto Body Co., has been in conference with Durant officials and is now preparing for greatly increased output of bodies at the local plant. It is assured that this Star contract alone will bring all former employees and probably many new workers to the Auto Body works.

May Mean New Factory

Though no definite announcement has been forthcoming it is predicted by motor officials high in authority,

The New York Globe was founded on December 9, 1793, by Noah Webster, as the "American Minerva." It was renamed "The Commercial Advertiser" on October 7, 1797 and was again changed to "The Globe and Commercial Advertiser" on February 1, 1904. This is the oldest daily newspaper still in existence in America. A weekly paper, the New Hampshire Gazette, was established in 1756 and is still published. The Hartford Courant was established as a weekly, the Connecticut Courant, in 1764, and is now a daily.

Dr. W. W. Barker

207 W. Third St. Phone 1966

He will direct the installation of new equipment at the plant and be in charge of all engineering here.

Carl Hohensee and W. R. Rowe are now working out plans for production upon completion of the factory addition. The Star cars will be handled in the present plant of the company with two assembling lines operating the length of the main building and finally turned into the shipping room at the south end of the plant.

When the addition is completed, the Durant four-cylinder machines will be handled through assembly lines from the new wing, into the main building and thence to the shipping room. This arrangement will provide the progressive assembly principle that is necessary for large scale production in the automobile manufacturing business.

Sales Are Growing

Increasing demand for the Durant four-cylinder machine throughout the middle western states has put the Lansing plant behind in its orders for these machines. Sales organizations are being developed in all of the larger centers and insistent orders are pouring in for more machines.

Both the new Star car and the Durant four-cylinder machine are to be manufactured in Lansing for all of the territory in the United States between the Alleghenies and the Rocky mountains. Plants in New York and California will care for eastern and far-western trade. The Toronto plant will handle Canadian and some export business.

Engines Now Being Made

The Continental Motor Corporation started the manufacture of the new engine for the Star car at Muskegon this week. These engines are to be produced at once on a basis of 200 daily and this production will be speeded up within the next few weeks, as the Continental is to make the motors for the entire Star output.

This engine was designed by the Continental company and possesses all of the refinements of the larger engines which this concern manufactures. The Star car itself, though built to sell in the Ford class as far as price is concerned, is an automobile of the type which in past years would have sold for several hundred dollars above this figure.

Manufacturing costs will be kept down by the centralized buying that is to be conducted by the New York company for all of its plants. In addition all manufacturing, engineering, and other details will be handled through New York under the personal direction of F. W. Hohensee and the Durant company. 40:1

POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK IS OBSERVED

May 1 Sees Inaugurated First General Campaign of Kind in Service.

Without the Postal Service, business would languish in a day, and be at a standstill in a week. Public opinion would die of dry rot. Sectional hatred or prejudice only would flourish, and narrow-mindedness thrive.

It is the biggest distinctive business in the world and it comes nearer to the innermost interests of a greater number of men and women than any other institution on earth. No private business, however widespread, touches so many lives so often or sharply; no church reaches into so many souls, flatters so many pulses, has so many human beings dependent on its ministrations.

"Postal Improvement Week" has been set for May 1, by the Postmaster General. This is the first general campaign of its kind in the Postal Service for several decades. Business men and their organizations, large users of the mail, newspapers, motion pictures, advertisers, and the entire organization of 326,000 postal workers are to be enlisted in this country-wide campaign of interest in postal improvements. Your help is vital. Address your letters plainly with pen or typewriter. Give street address. Spell out name of State, don't abbreviate. Put your return address in the upper left hand corner of envelope (not on the back) and always look at your letter before dropping in the mail to see if it is properly addressed. This care in the use of the mails is for your benefit and speeds up the dispatch and delivery of mail matter.

If you have any complaints of poor service make them to your postmaster. He has instructions to investigate them and report to the department.

COURTESY

It sticks in human relations like postage stamps on letters. The POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT expects it to be used by its postmasters and employees in dealing with the public.

Help them in its use beginning with POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK, May 1-6, 1922.

ALFALFA SURPASSES FOR STOCK FEEDING

Good Qualities of Crop Enumerated in Bulletin.

In Addition to Advantages as Pasture and for Silage It Is of Great Value as Soil Improver—Other Possibilities.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

"A nearly perfect forage"—that is the highest of praise heaped upon alfalfa by R. A. Oakley and H. L. Westover of the United States Department of Agriculture in a new farmers' bulletin, Utilization of Alfalfa, just issued. And when the good qualities of this crop are enumerated it is evident that some such description is warranted. As a hay it is unsurpassed for general feeding; as a pasture it has a high carrying capacity and produces large gains; as a silage crop it is valuable with proper handling; it makes excellent silage; and when ground into meal it is a good and easily handled feed. In addition to these good qualities it is of great value as a soil improver. Attempts have even been made to introduce it as a human food and as a medicine, but it cannot compete with other staples as a food and it has no special medicinal properties.

Although not detailed enough to make laborious reading, each subject from haymaking on through to alfalfa meal manufacture, and a consideration of fake and fad alfalfa products, is treated so fully as to give the reader a thorough understanding of the possibilities of this great crop. Those who are inclined to be too enthusiastic over certain uses will find reason in the collected experience of many growers and feeders to modify their views, for alfalfa is not a panacea for all the troubles of the farm and feedlot. Consideration is given to the needs of dairy cattle, beef cattle, hogs, sheep, horses and poultry, and to the crop in various forms, including hay, pasture, silage, straw, soiling feed, tea and meal.

Those who are interested should write to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, for Farmers' Bulletin 1229 which will be sent free of charge.

Common Sense About Eczema and Eruptions!

Here's Something About S. S. S. That You'll Be Glad to Hear.

You might just as well know it right now—the cause of skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, boils and so on, is right in the blood. There is no getting away from it. Science has proved it. We prove it. You can prove it. When the cause of skin troubles and eruptions is in the blood, it isn't com-

Let S. S. S. Give You An Angelic Skin! Common sense to simply treat the skin. A bottle of S. S. S. will prove to you what is happening in your blood. S. S. S. is a scientific blood cleanser—it drives out the impurities which cause eczema, tetter, rash, pimples, boils, blackheads, blotches and other skin eruptions. When these impurities are driven out, you can't stop several very nice things from happening. Your lips turn naturally rosy. Your eyes sparkle, your complexion clears. It becomes beautiful. Your face looks like that of a prosperous, ruddy, well-fed, refined gentleman, or if you are a woman, your complexion becomes the real kind that the whole world so admires. S. S. S. is also a powerful body-builder, because it builds new and more blood-cells. That's why it fills out sunken cheeks, bony necks, thin limbs, helps regain lost flesh. It costs little to have this happen to you. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Be Sure You Know About Your Battery

No matter what kind of a car you drive or what kind of a battery there is on it you have to keep posted on certain battery facts.

You have to know whether your battery is charged to the proper point—whether it has enough water in it—whether each of the cells works properly.

Our most important job as a Battery Station is to tell you these things. It doesn't make a bit of difference what make your battery is. Here at Battery Headquarters we give every make exactly the same attention.

WITHOUT STREET ADDRESS
YOUR MAIL IS DELAYED
AT OFFICE OF DELIVERY

The Dead Letter Office has been in existence ever since Ben Franklin started our postal service. Even then people addressed mail to Mr. Ezekiel Smithers, "Atlantic Coast," and expected Ben to know just where Zeke lived.

Perhaps they had Zeke's address in letters up in the garret, maybe a chest full of 'em, but then it was easier to let Ben hunt Zeke. Today people are addressing letters to John Smith, New York, N. Y., or Chicago, Ill., thinking Uncle Sam can locate him, which is just as incomplete as was Zeke's address of yore. The Postoffice Department asks you to put the number and street in the address. It helps you.

How do you expect the Postal Clerk to know whether you mean Trinidad, California, or Trinidad, Colorado? ALWAYS SPELL OUT THE NAME OF THE STATE IN FULL IN THE ADDRESS.

Pilgrims Knew the Bible

Three hundred years ago a little band of men and women lived on faith and hard work in the forests of Massachusetts. They are known now as Pilgrims because they sailed from England to find a place to worship God without restraint. They brought their pastor with them—few modern immigrants do.

Bible Develops Character

The Pilgrims were poor and unlearned, but they knew the Bible. That knowledge developed a type of character we all admire! These first settlers would not be known to posterity had they not been so well acquainted with their Bible. Is your Bible a parlor ornament, or a study book? Read it today around the family lamp. Read it every day.

ULTIMATUM MAY DESTROY PEACE

To Be Served by Great Britain on France and Threatens to Divide Europe Into Hostile Camps

NO POSSIBILITY OF WAR SEEN

Paris Government May Decide to Support Poincaré and Throw France Against Russian

(By United Press)

An ultimatum to be served upon France by Great Britain against an invasion of Germany is threatening to break up Europe into a new alignment of hostile powers.

Lloyd George has challenged Premier Poincaré to carry out his policy of nationalist imperialism. If the Paris government decides to support Poincaré's desire to see France thrown against the Russians and seize German territory for full payment of France's war claim, Great Britain will go to Germany's help.

There is not a possibility of the British declaring war against the French, but Great Britain has in her hands financial control over the greater part of Europe, including France. This is due to Britain's loan to her allies.

BY HENRY WOOD

Genoa, April 28.—The next move at Genoa is strictly up to Premier Poincaré of France.

Uncertainty as to the attitude of the French prime minister leaves the various threads of the economic conference disintegrated and awry.

The sub-committee which was to have met at 11 o'clock today, to discuss the Russian situation postponed its meeting at the last minute.

Aside from further discussion of the terms of the allied note to Russia, the machinery of the conference was at a standstill early today.

Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation, was in constant and lengthy communication with Poincaré today. The premier summoned the head of the French delegation to return to Paris and explain how things were going, but Barthou was reported to be hesitant about leaving Genoa until after he has found out just what is the official French attitude toward the note to Russia.

AUTHORIZES ISSUE OF 30 MILLION DOLLARS

Public Service Commission Sanctions Step by Northern Indiana Gas and Electric Company

TO IMPROVE SOME OF PLANTS

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 28.—An issue of approximately thirty million dollars worth of securities by the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric Company to reorganize its financial structure and improve its plants in some of the 37 cities where it operates, was authorized by the public service commission today.

It was the largest issue of securities ever approved by the public service commission and is for the purpose of refinancing the organization to meet new conditions.

Most of the money will be issued in refunding bonds and mortgages. Part of it will be spent in paying for improvements and extensions already made on the property and part of it for contemplated extensions.

Provision was made to use $2,115,000 for improvements from December 31, 1918 to December 1, 1922. By this system of refinancing the company will get out from under a heavy burden of securities which it has been carrying and will be free from annual interest charge of $526,000.

Government Inspectors Comment on Collapse of Ohio River Boat

(By United Press)

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 28.—Government inspectors investigating the Island Queen, on which President Harding and party were scheduled to journey to Point Pleasant, yesterday, admitted today they considered the accident in which 20 persons were injured "suspicious."

Officials pointed out the boat has a capacity of 3,000 and only about half that number were aboard when supports gave way and upper decks crashed, seriously injuring three persons.

President Harding and his party by a last minute change in plans made the trip in a government tug.

COLLECTIONS ARE SMALLER

Suffer Big Slump Thursday, Leaving More Than $164,000 Still Due

County tax collections fell off Thursday, amounting to only $28,036.04, as compared with more than $43,000 Wednesday. The total collections when the office opened for business this morning were $386,201.99, which left approximately $164,000 yet due on the spring installment.

The period for paying spring taxes without suffering a penalty ends next Monday night. The county treasurer's office will be open tonight and Saturday and Monday nights for the convenience of taxpayers.

ASKS NOMINATION ON FORMER RECORD

Albert J. Beveridge Discusses Issues of Primary Campaign in Eloquent Address Here

LIKE COMING HOME, HE SAYS

Judge Arthur Robinson Flays Marion County Political Machine For Its Tactics in Past

Albert J. Beveridge, candidate for the republican nomination for the United States senate, and Judge Arthur Robinson of Indianapolis, were here Thursday afternoon in addresses in behalf of Mr. Beveridge's candidacy. The former senator laid stress on the fact that he was seeking the nomination on his former record, while Judge Robinson scored the record made by Harry S. New during his 54 years in the senate, and who is again seeking the nomination.

The meeting was held in the court room which was packed with people, and Beveridge did not conclude his address until 5:15, holding the crowd with his eloquent speech.

Judge Robinson addressed the audience first and paved the way for Mr. Beveridge, who put forth the platform upon which he is seeking the nomination. He spoke as if he were very confident of winning a majority at the primary election on Tuesday.

Former Senator Beveridge in opening his address, stated that it was like coming home again, to speak in Rush county, because this was the first place where he had delivered a political speech, many years ago, when John K. Gowdy was county chairman, and that he also felt that he was at home, because this was the abode of his personal friend, Senator James E. Watson.

He stated that he had been wrongfully accused by his opponents of being a pro-German during the war, but that these accusations were false, and that he had entered the campaign determined to cause a show down. He cited the fact that even George Washington had been accused of being a traitor and forger and that people even pointed to Thomas Jefferson, as being immoral, and charges of other kinds had been made against the late Theodore Roosevelt. The speaker stated that all of these charges had been lived down, and the falseness of them exposed.

He stated that he was not appearing at this time with any political promises, as to what his platform would consist of, but he had made up his mind that one of the first bills he would push, would be the Dyer anti-lynching bill, to protect the colored people, and which bill has been in a committee room for so long a time without any action.

"This is a most curious and important campaign," he continued, "and it is the most important one that I have ever participated in. There are many mighty problems, complex and difficult as well as tremendous, which confront us today. The most mighty of these is the much discussed question, 'How can we revive business?'"

"I'm against all blocs," the former senator continued, "and in this connection I want to say that I am open to any counsel from these blocs, but I will not take any orders from any of them." In this connection he referred to the "farm bloc" and pointed out that some of the senators had been dictated to, and that they were not guided by their own desires.

"Did you ever stop to think that the people in America should have a good time all of the time," he asserted, after picturing the ideal location of this continent, and the foundation upon which the principle of our government were formed, and which had been enveloped in so many laws to prevent the good time. A law that is good in principle and is beneficial to all of the people and not merely a part of the people, is truly a good law, but one which benefits only a part of the people, and lays a burden on the rest, is one of the ways that the people in this country do not have that good time, which they should."

PLAY PLEASURES A LARGE AUDIENCE

"The Far Away Princess" Will be Repeated Tonight by Rushville High School Seniors

A ROMANTIC COMEDY TO MUSIC

Stage Settings and Costumes Add to Attractiveness of Annual Senior Class Offering

"The Far Away Princess," a romantic comedy with music was presented by the graduating class of the Rushville high school at the Graham Annex auditorium Thursday night before an appreciative audience and will be repeated again tonight. There were a few empty seats in the rear on the first floor at the premier, but all of the choice seats were taken.

The play was rearranged and directed by Denning Havens of this city, who also supplied the special musical numbers and choruses. The scenes are all laid in the garden of Madame Linderman's "Dew-Drop Inn" in the Arcadian mountains and the action centers about Princess Marie Louise of Geldren, which part was well taken by Miss Rowena Kennedy, and the hidden treasure which is supposed to be buried in the mountains.

All of the people in the community are silent worshippers at the shrine of the princess, who keeps her royal reserve and never appears in public. The news that she is coming to "Dew-Drop Inn" incognito somehow leaks out and the interest among the natives is intense.

The key to the buried treasure is secreted in a set of books left by the grandfather of Prince Orloff, the part of the prince being well acted by William Kramer. Orloff attempts to recover the books from the maid, Rosina (Miss Helen Behout) at "Dew-Drop Inn" but finds that she has previously sold them to George Brent (William Sparks) a lawyer. With womanly curiosity, however, Rosina examined the volumes after Madame Linderman had purchased them at auction, and discovers therein the map showing the location of the buried treasure.

When she learns the identity of Prince Orloff and his interest in the books, Rosina shares the secret with him, and the prince goes in search of the treasure. He locates the spot and digs lustily, only to find a letter from his grandfather, telling him that the secret to success is fresh air, good health and honest work. The prince is rewarded, however, because it develops that Brent is the representative of his grandfather's estate and the will provided that Orloff should have all the wealth if he persisted in finding the treasure and showed himself a willing worker.

Pedro, a student, played by Loren Hunt, was a silent shipwrecker at the shrine of the princess, and unwittingly told her of his admiration. She later reveals her identity, which proves very disconcerting to Pedro. Mrs. LeShell (Helen Pierson) an ambitious mother, and her two daughters, Marcelle (Martha Fanning) and Felice (Margaret Herkless) are also seekers after the favor of the princess.

Sam Williams (Carroll Nipp), an American sheriff, provides a good bit of comedy and is ably assisted by Julian Linderman, the hen-pecked husband of the inn-keeper (John Ryan). Sam works up a plot whereby he pictures Orloff as a robber and a murderer, but nothing ever comes of it.

The third separate romance of the play develops between Marie, a flower girl at the inn, (Helen Gray) and Greyson, a surveyor (Louis Smith) who came to the Arcadian mountains in search of the treasure also. He represents a New York firm and is likewise disappointed by the discovery of the buried treasure.

The part of Jack McKee, a guest at the inn, is played by William Frazee, and Ivan Alexander appears in the dual role of an assistant surveyor and lackey to the princess. Horace Pearsey, takes well the part of Tony, the music man, who sings well. Baroness Brook (Virginia Haydon) as the waiting maid to the princess, protects her royal high-

TRYING TO CATCH THIEVES

John Knecht's Stolen Car Will Not Be Returned For Few Days

John A. Knecht, local automobile dealer, who was notified Wednesday by Robert Humes, chief of the state automobile police, that a new Buick five-passenger touring car had been stolen from his storage room here recently, said today that the machine would not be returned to him for a few days on account of an effort which is being made to catch the thieves. The car was found at Henryville, Ind., and it is thought that the culprits may return there for it.

Mr. Knecht said the car had been stolen during the last ten days as he checked his machines in storage one week ago, Saturday and none was missing then.

BODY FOUND IN A CHURCH BASEMENT

Gertrude Hanna, Choir Girl, Believed to Have Met Death at Hands of Her Betrayer

HELD PRISONER MANY DAYS

Police Theory is That Death Was Due to Overdose of Chloroform Administered to Her

(By United Press)

Hoopeston, Ill., April 28.—Gertrude Hanna, choir girl, met death while her betrayer attempted to force her to undergo an illegal operation, evidence indicated today.

Her lover not wishing to carry out a probable promise of marriage, held the girl prisoner for several days and administered chloroform with the intentions of performing the operation while she was unconscious, according to the theory of Chief of Police Bogart.

Death was caused accidentally by an overdose of chloroform, Bogart believed and the murderer hid the body in the basement of the United Presbyterian church, where it was found by carpenters.

Search was being made throughout Hoopeston and outlying territory for deserted house where officials believe the girl had a rendezvous with her lover and where she met her death.

A half dozen young men whose names were connected with that of the girl in gossip were quizzed today, but all denied any knowledge of the murder.

The girl's body was not in the basement a week ago, J. M. Strong, a prominent citizen of Hoopeston, told the authorities.

"I went all through the parsonage searching for a lawn mower, which I had loaned the pastor, a year ago," Strong said.

"I searched the basement carefully and I am sure I would have seen the body had it been there."

As evidence was gradually compiled, suspicion of authorities were being concentrated on one elderly person who had been attentive to Gertrude. This man had been thrown into company with the slain girl frequently at the church. He was also acquainted with the details of the arrangement of the parsonage.

FIVE PROMINENT PROTESTANTS KILLED

Murders in County Cork Thursday Night Apparently Reprisals For Killing of Catholics in Belfast

REBELS LEAVE MULLINGAR

(By United Press)

Cork, April 28.—Five prominent protestants were murdered at Ballincen and Clonakilly, in County Cork last night. The murders were apparently in reprisal for the killing of Catholics in Belfast. All protestants have been ordered to leave Dunmanway, County Cork, where three were shot dead Wednesday night.

Dublin, April 28.—General Major Keown, the "blacksmith of Blinlee," commanding Free State troops at Mullingar today had cleared the last rebel from the battle area where three were killed and a dozen wounded in fighting yesterday.

The general's ultimatum to the insurgent troops holding the county hall at Mullingar—"to get out or be blown out"—was answered promptly by rebel evacuation last night. Free state troops followed up their victory and swept the area clear, making a considerable haul of arms and ammunition.

CONDITION IS CRITICAL.

Mrs. Charles A. Frazee who has been ill for several days, was reported this afternoon to be in a serious condition with little hopes maintained for her recovery. She has been removed from her home to the Sexton hospital for treatment, after having been brought home from Indianapolis where she was treated in the Methodist hospital.

He pointed out that there were three important problems that confront the nation within the next six years, and that there were the expense of government, the question of taxation and the transportation problems. These factors when brought down to a sound basis, will bring about the readjustment of business, he said.

"I am for the cutting of government expense, and cutting it down to the bone," he continued, "and I would start at the bottom. All of the useless employes should be discharged, and it will not be until about twenty thousand leeches on the government payroll are sent back to do honest toil, that the expenses of government operation can be lowered."

He pointed out that the most curious system of taxation is employed in this country. It was created during the war, when it was decided that wealth should bear the burden of taxation.

"But now," Mr. Beveridge continued, "that the war is over and business has come to a standstill, what becomes of our taxes?" He also outlined the fact that taxes went for government expenses and that if the expense of government operation were lessened, the burden of taxation would decrease. For a remedy of the tax law, he suggested the sales tax plan, in which every item is taxed excepting farm products, until the farmer gets his business back to normal. He favors an exemption of $10,000 for farmers, he said.

He also pointed out that transportation concerns everyone, and that the rates should be lessened in order to make business stable.

The meeting was largely attended here and people were turned away from the court house, unable to get in. Judge Robinson spoke first, and in a stirring address, said in part:
"The Jewett-Lemcke machine hounded James E. Watson throughout the primary campaign of nineteen sixteen and then after Watson had decisively defeated New in the state, the nomination was stolen from him in Indianapolis. After the machine had counted him out, certain of the machine tools had the temerity to boast of it and even to go into detail as to how it had been done."

"In nineteen twenty, however, the Jewett-Lemcke machine overplayed their hand. They pursued the same tactics against Warren T. McCray for the gubernatorial nomination,
but the people rebuked the machine;
they were thoroughly beaten and landed on the scrap heap."

"Last year in the city campaign they again attempted to dictate to the people of Indianapolis, and again they were rebuked for Lew

Cave Man Stuff

BACK near the beginning of things; our prehistoric forebears would have perished from the earth if they had not understood the science of reading advertising.

The cavemen didn't know much about underwear,
hair tonic or phonographs, but they did have to eat.
The one who could follow the tracks of the game
he hunted, or read the meaning of a twisted leaf or broken twig, was best off in life.

Then as now, the most consistent reader of advertising was best dressed, best fed and most contented.

There has been something of an evolution in advertising in the last few thousand years, but the principle is just the same.

The consistent reader of the advertisements is invariably best informed on what to eat and where to get it; what to wear and how much to pay for it; what to do and how to do it. He's up on the most important things in life. Consequently he gets most from life.

Throughout the ages, advertising has done much to make life livable and pleasant. We owe it much.

Let's make the most of it.

Why Women Get Despondent

Are not women naturally as light-hearted, brave and hopeful as men?
Yes, certainly; but a woman's organism is essentially different from a man's—more delicate, more sensitive and more exacting. Women in delicate health are more dependent, more nervous, more irritable and more despondent. When a woman develops nervousness, sleeplessness, backaches, headaches, dragging down pains and melancholia she should lose no time in giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial, as it will quickly dispel such troubles. This root and herb very receptive when he sang "Ain't Nature Grand" and Miss Haydon was also good in "Plantation Lallabye."

The second act also opened with a chorus of popular songs and Miss Norris sang "Castle of Dreams" well. Miss Kennedy had only one song, "Bring Back My Blushing Rose," which was exceedingly well done. Miss Kennedy's interpretation of the part and her singing deserved
all of the applause she received.
Her selection was made more attractive by the rose chorus composed of Mary Walker, Laura Jordan, Margaret Bell and Marcia Kendall.

The high school orchestra under the direction of Miss Sarah I. Mc-Connell, played before the opening of the show and between acts. Miss Herkless at the piano and Miss Gladys Tittsworth provided the accompaniments for the musical numbers.

The scenery was especially attractive and disclosed the artistic ability of Mr. Havens, who also designed the costumes used in the rose chorus. The flowers were made by the girls of the graduating class and Mrs. LaVerne Farthing. The garden wall and the front of the inn were made by the manual training department of the high school under the supervision of M. E. Cook. Mrs.
Farthing was the business manager.
The furniture used on the stage was provided by George C. Wyatt and company and the piano was provided by the Boxley Piano company.

Vaudeville and Pictures — Princess.

The week-end theatre goers will again be entertained Friday and Saturday at the Princess, with a good program of pictures and two acts of high class vaudeville. The vaudeville acts this week consists of Wat-erall and Winifred in a singing, talking, and jabbering act, and they come here from an engagement at the Circle theatre in Indianapolis. Alfredo, a musical rube act, also comes highly recommended. Marie Provost will be seen in a picture, "Nobody's Fool," and a comedy featuring Snooky, the human ape, entitled
"Snooky's Fresh Heir," will complete the bill.

"The Struggle" Coming.

The world over the great plains of America are looked upon as a rampant playground for romance and adventure. The coolies of Shanghai, follow the career of the deep-dyed villain and the handsome hero with the same breathless attention as do the young scions of the rich of Fifth Avenue.

Beginning Saturday all the move-lovers of Rushville will have the pleasure of seeing a picture which is considered as typifying the romance and adventure of the great West.

The management of the Mystic theatre has succeeded in securing for a limited engagement Franklyn Farnum in his latest super Western picture, "The Struggle."

The story of this remarkable picture production is surcharged to the fullest degree with the prairie atmosphere of adventure and daring.
Hair-raising feats of prowess follow each other in quick succession.
In contrast to the wild horsemanship of the plains has been added the picturesque background of the foothills of the Rockies where in canyon and ravine, a tale of swift moving action, of heroism, of ardent love making and dashing dare dev-iltry is enacted.

The author and director of "The Struggle" have skillfully woven into the brisk story an element of humanity which has seldom been attained in photoplays dealing with Western subjects.

A Dog's Devotion.

Lovers of dogs will be interested in the story told at an inquest at the London hospital on the body of a man who committed suicide by throwing himself out of a window. In a letter written just before his death he wrote: "My dog Teddy follows me about. He knows things are very bad with me. I do hope he will be taken care of. As I pace up and down my room he walks with me." A witness said that the dog was very fond of his master and always seemed to understand when he was worried and in trouble.

The Habit Clinic

The bulletin of the Massachusetts Society for Mental Hygiene tells of a habit clinic conducted at the South Bay Union Settlement in Boston, in charge of a director of the Boston Psychopathic Hospital. The purpose of the habit clinic is "to nip in the bud habits and tendencies leading to later nervous breakdown." It is suggested that at such a clinic, under expert treatment, a person might be cured of those eccentricities of manner which sometimes annoy friends or relatives.

However much like a joke all this sounds, it possesses great possibilities of helpfulness. A considerable portion of the patients are children, and the case workers in the habit clinic go into the homes of viciously inclined boys and girls to look for fundamental causes. Such a case may be an over-indulgent parent or one too rigidly exacting. Frequently the most beneficial treatment for the child is the education of the parents in things relating to the child's mental and spiritual life.

Children treated so far have fallen naturally into three main groups; those who have poor habits of eating

South Bend, Ind.—"I was in very poor health with a combination of ailments brought on by inward weakness, when my doctor gave me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it was Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription that restored me to health after all other doctors had failed. But many times I have heard them say, 'Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine I have ever taken.'—Mrs. Jennie Dickerson, 917 Standard St.

Any such work is slow in producing results, but definite improvement has been reported in various cases. At any rate, it is an important effort.

Perhaps misunderstood children are not so numerous as is sometimes thought. But wherever there is a misunderstood child or one who is having nervousness and bad temper forced on it by ignorant, careless or indifferent grown-ups, there is a real tragedy. Such an effort as that made by the habit clinic is highly commendable.

Mr. Wilson says that the English are wearing American shoes—have been for some time, and that they are just now trying out the style of wearing silk socks. They will never find better shoes than those made in America, and they will also find silk socks to their liking, providing their pocketbooks can stand the strain.

But it is very likely that the worst in American life will be borrowed by our brothers across the sea. They like our jazz, it seems, and have actually incorporated so much of the U. S. A. pep that they dance until 5 a. m. to American music.

There are a few things they can have and welcome to them. We would like to see them take a little of our crime wave and try it out across the sea; also some of our demagogues in political life and some of our labor leaders who want to raise wages and lessen working hours at the expense of the public purse.

H.S. STARS MAY SET BETTER MARKS

If Track at Earlham is as Fast as Predicted, High Schools Will Break Records

STATE MEET SET FOR MAY 20

Phillips of Rushville is Mentioned as Having Made Wonderful Record in Mile Run

By HEZE CLARK
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 28.—Interest in the high school sectional track and field meets to be held throughout the state this year centers on the fact that, each year, the stars get better marks.

This interest was aroused by the announcement of May 13, as the latest date the men may qualify.

The records set by the Hoosier thin clad compare favorably with the record set by the best athletes in the country.

The state championship high school track meet will be held at Richmond May 20. If the track is as fast as Coach Ray Mowe of Earlham says it is, there will be some new time records set. The record of ten seconds in the hundred yard dash set years ago has been equaled twice since that time when Blair of Hammond first made the century mark but no high school boy has lowered it and probably never will. Gray of Technical high, Indianapolis, last year won the finals of the 100-yard in the state meet in 10 and four-fifths seconds, and took first in the 220-yard in 23 seconds.

Velsay of Manual high, Indianapolis, who made the 120 high hurdle in 17 and two-fifths seconds a year ago should lower that mark also a second this year. Marks of Wabash high school looks like the man that should set a new record this season. Marks twice broke the low hurdle record last year in the heats but failed to win his event as he tripped and fell in the final heat.

Phillips of Rushville high school made wonderful time last year in the mile, covering the distance in four minutes 41 and four-fifths seconds and he was not pressed. Several distance men in the state this year may beat that time. Stantes the little Warsaw runner is still in school and looks good in the 440-yard dash. He did 50 and four-fifths seconds last year.

The Center Woman's Missionary Society will hold a market at Krumer's Meat Market Sat. April 29 at 9 a. m.

ARLINGTON TO MEET HERCULES BALL CLUB

Athletic Club Hopes to Annex Another Game Next Sunday on Its Home Diamonds

WARMOUTH TO BE ON MOUND

The Arlington Athletic Club hopes to annex another game Sunday when they meet the Hercules ball club on the ground at Arlington. The Athletic club defeated the Marmon 34's in a well played game last Sunday 6 to 4. Warmouth, who pitched against Rushville, will be on the mound again for Arlington.

The Hercules have always been a strong team and last season won 25 out of 27 games. The Arlington team has been doing extensive improvement to their new athletic field east of the gymnasium. They have much to do yet but the new field is already much better than the old one. The management announces that the admission prices this year will be: men 25 cents; ladies free; autos 10 cents; grand stand 10 cents, and the war tax included.

The schedule is as follows for the first few games: May 7 and 14, open; May 21, Indianapolis Southern Grays at Arlington; May 28, at Greenfield; June 4, Selmers at Arlington.

The Score Board

Yesterdays hero—Wielding a wicked willow, Grimes won his second game, for the Cubs. He tied the score with a homer and drove in two more runs with a single, the Cubs beating the Cards, 6 to 4.

After Zachary and Courtney had been knocked out of the box, Erickson held the Athletics to two hits in the last five innings and the Senators won 9 to 3.

Johnny Evers played his first game in the American League while Collins was laid up and accepted six chances without an error, the White Sox holding the Indians to a 6-6 draw.

Andy High with a homer, a double and a single led the Brooklyn attack which maimed three pitchers for sixteen hits and beat the Braves, 12 to 5.

Wingo hit a homer and helped the Reds beat the Pirates 8 to 5.

The Giants hit two Philly pitchers for 13 hits and 19 bases and were easily winners 10 to 5.

Sport Summary

New York —The boxing commission revoked licenses of Jack Clifford, a referee, and John Y. Hines, a judge, for giving Danny Lee the decision over Young Montreal in a recent bout that was suspected of being fixed.

New York —Tex Rickard returned from a trip to Bermuda and announced that he would resume his activities at Madison Square Garden. He wants a Tunney-Greb light-heavy weight championship bout for May 26.

New York —Babe Ruth is going to enter the hospital next week to have his tonsils removed. The home run king has been bothered for a year with throat trouble.

Chicago —Maurice A. Kent, Iowa State College baseball, basketball and football coach, has been appointed head basketball and baseball coach of Northwestern University.

New York —Legislation to rule out athletes who bet on themselves or allow friends to wager on them, will be passed by the A. A. U. according to A. F. Rubien, secretary.

STAR OF DUAL TRACK MEET

Stanley Herrall, Formerly of This City, on Connersville Team

Stanley Herrall of Connersville, formerly of this city, was the star for the Connersville high school Wednesday in a track and field meet with Manual of Indianapolis, winning the 100 yard dash, the 440 yard run and the broad jump. His time was as follows: 100 yard dash, 10 and two-fifths seconds; 440 yard run, 54 and four-fifths seconds, and distance in the broad jump was 20 feet, six inches.

Connersville won the meet 66 to 33, and it was the first time in seven years that the Indianapolis school has lost a dual meet.

This Time Last Year

Ruth was up three times in Washington and got one single.

Devernex Milburn played his first game with the American polo team in London when they beat a scrub team 15 to 2 in a practice game.

Tex Rickard announced that the Dempsey-Carpentier fight would start at three o'clock. Tickets at $5 to $50 were announced. Wall Street made Dempsey a 9 to 5 favorite in the betting.

George Ugle hit a homer with the bases filled and two singles. Cleveland made 23 hits for 33 bases off Detroit.

Mrs. R. C. Dora and daughter Miss Clara Dora, Miss Stella Shortridge and Mrs. Ida Shortridge of Glenwood were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan of North Main street Thursday.

Mrs. Howard Ewbank was hostess to the members of the Yomo club Thursday afternoon at her home northeast of the city. A delightful social afternoon was enjoyed by the guests and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Honoring the last day of school, the pupils and patrons of the Applegate school enjoyed a bountiful picnic in dinner today at noon at the school building. In the afternoon a short program was given by the pupils. Miss Bertha Moore is the teacher.

About twenty-five guests delightfully surprised Mrs. Walter A. Smith last evening at her home in North Harrison street, honoring her birthday anniversary. The evening was enjoyed with games, music and dancing. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the party.

Mrs. Mary E. Jarrett and Mrs. Tibby of East Main street, Manilla, entertained the following guests with a dinner party last Sunday: Mrs. Tibby's brother, Mr. Conoway and family of Carthage and Mrs. Jarrett's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson of Indianapolis. The latter have just returned from Fort Worth, Texas, where they attended the wedding of their son, George.

Much business was transacted at the regular meeting of the W. R. C. held Wednesday afternoon in the G. A. R. room of the court house. At that time it was decided to serve a banquet Saturday evening at six o'clock to the members of the P. O. S. of A. in their hall in North Main street. All members are urged to contribute to the donations of food and are requested to call Mrs. James Gregg as to information of the menu to be served.

Mattox Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., celebrated the 100th birthday anniversary of Gen. U. S. Grant in a very appropriate manner last night in the assembly room of the court house. Mrs. Carl Behr sang two very beautiful solos, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Jess Pugh. Frances Eloise and Bonnie Jean Beale were very heartily received when they sang a duet accompanied by Maxine Brown, and Mary Elizabeth Beale gave a monologue which was very much enjoyed by all.

A very able address was made by the Rev. C. S. Black giving a brief sketch of the life of Grant, touching on his life as a general and hero of the Civil war. He pointed out his traits as a man of bravery and high ideals and one that kept cool and reserved in a great crisis.

The Rev. Mr. Black commended the organization for preserving and setting forth the high principles exemplified by the life of such a noble, courageous and uplifting character as that of Ulysses S. Grant. He related many incidents in the life of Grant showing him to be worthy of all honor.

Senator Watson Says Senate Committee Will Get His Approval

Washington, April 28.—The Senate's bonus bill will be laid before President Harding before any further steps are taken by the finance committee, Senator Watson, Indiana, announced today.

Soon after Harding returns to Washington, McCumber and Smoot will seek his approval of their "compromise" bonus plan, which they believe eliminates the features of the House bill to which Harding objected.

DOMINANT STYLES

The tuxedo and the slip-on are the two dominating styles in sweaters, each of them made in many variations of color, weave and materials. A handsome tuxedo, knitted of wool yarn, appears above in a sweater that reveals the effective use of a fancy weave in the body of the garment and the employment of contrasting color.

Original "Rivals."

A rival was originally any person who used the same stream. As experience shows, there is no such fruitful source of contention as a water-right. Neighbors would be often at strife with one another in regard of the period during which they severally had a right to the use of the stream; turning it off into their own fields before the time; leaving open the sluices beyond the time; or in other ways interfering with the rights of each other. So it was that "rivals" came to be applied to any who were in competition with one another.

Locating Early Causes Way to Cut Death Rate

Of all the plagues that have afflicted mankind since the world began none is more deadly or costly than tuberculosis, not infrequently termed the "Great White Plague." Other scourges, ancient and modern, have swept over the country or a community for a few weeks, months or years, striking down its victims. Tuberculosis has kept up its terrible ravages for more than 2,500 years, leaving misery, death and desolation in its path.

In the United States alone tuberculosis takes a toll of 150,000 persons every year.

One person dies every three and one-half minutes, 17 every hour and over 400 every day.

According to a careful estimate there are at least 1,000,000 active cases of tuberculosis in the United States at this time.

In that many people do not know that they have this disease, it is difficult to get a close estimate of the number of inactive cases of it. The health demonstration at Framington, Mass., where a whole city put itself in the care of physicians in order to promote health and further scientific investigation, has revealed that there are about 15 cases of tuberculosis for every death. This would indicate a total of over 2,000,000 cases in this country, of which 1,000,000 are probably active.

Inactive cases may at any time become active cases by weakness due to some other disease, or by a cold, or some unusual physical strain.

No disease that afflicts mankind is more insidious than tuberculosis. It strikes silently and surely and often has been long at work before discovered.

A large majority of the cases are those of persons who are not aware that they have it. Draft boards and army doctors discovered more than 100,000 cases among the young men, who were registrants during the war the pick of the country, who thought they were fit to fight for it.

The plague of tuberculosis is the greatest single cause of death in the United States. According to authentic report one-tenth of all the men, women and children who die each year are victims of this disease.

Most of these who die from tuberculosis are taken in the prime of life. One-third of all who die between the ages of 15 and 45 years are killed by tuberculosis.

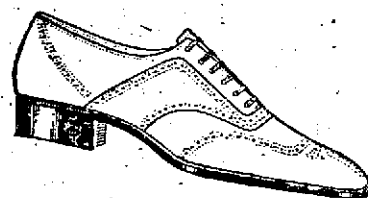

Tuberculosis is clearly a preventable disease and it is possible to stop the awful sacrifice of 150,000 lives annually in this country. To bring about this result individuals must co-operate with all the agencies now waging a war on this dread disease. Fresh air, cleanliness, destruction of the germ-laden sputum of those afflicted with consumption and wholesome food are particularly essential in the matter of prevention as well as that of cure.

One way of cutting down the death rate of tuberculosis is to find the early cases. An early examination, therefore, is most important toward controlling the spread of the disease. To find these early cases the Rush County Tuberculosis Association will hold a clinic on May 1, at Rushville from 10 to 12 and 2 to 5 o'clock. The clinic will be free and will be held at office of Dr. J. M. Lee. The attending physician will be Dr. James H. Strygall, of Indianapolis, medical director of the Indiana Tuberculosis Association, who has given many years of study to this problem and who is considered one of the leading experts in this part of the country.

UNEMPLOYMENT IS ON THE INCREASE

Strikes Swell Total Which Previously Had Been Lowered by Activity or Commissions

3,800,000 ARE OUT OF WORK

Situation Among Unemployed Not on Strike is Much Improved—150 Applicants For Every 100 Jobs

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 28.—Unemployment is on the brink of a new high fluctuation—with possibly 3,800,000 men out of work in the United States—according to official government estimates here today. Strikes have swelled the total which previously had been lowered by the activity of the government unemployment commissions.

The nation wide coal walkout made more than 700,000 men jobless, according to conservative estimates which include striking miners and those in other industries who have been forced out of work by local shortages of fuel.

The textile strike in New England brought voluntarily unemployment to some 25,000; the building trades walkout in Chicago caused seven thousand more to cease work while smaller strikes in various sections of the country have brought the estimated total of men now out on strike in the country to more than 800,000. These are estimates of the labor department.

The department of commerce estimates that there are still nearly 3,000,000 men out of work involuntarily.

The situation among those unemployed not on strike is much improved, according to Col. Arthur Woods, chief of the president's conference on unemployment. Based on percentages there are 150 applicants now for every 100 jobs open, Woods said, while in January there were 226 applicants for every 100 jobs.

Following out these figures Woods has concluded that jobs have been found for approximately 630,000 persons.

Further emphasizing the improved situation among the unwillingly unemployed, Woods declared that while in January there were 38 applicants placed out of every 100 who applied in April, the number had gone up to 50.

FEDERAL CONTROL OF WIRELESS SUGGESTED

Distribution of Wave Lengths, Creation of Board, Full Government Authority Authorized

RESULT OF RADIO CONFERENCE

(By United Press)
Washington, April 28.—Recommendations providing for virtual federal control of all wireless telephones in the country were presented to Secretary of Commerce Hoover today.

The recommendations which are to be submitted to congress, provide for distribution of wave length, creation of a supervising board of 12 men under Secretary Hoover and full government authority over government radiophones.

They are the final recommendations of the government radio conference here for several weeks to find ways and means of regulating wireless traffic.

The plan makes Secretary Hoover supreme chief of "ether cops" with full authority to govern the development of the wireless phone as he sees fit.

The general allocation of wave lengths provide:
Trans oceanic service 6,000 meters; fixed radio telephony, non exclusive 3,300; Mobile service non exclusive 2,650; government broadcasting 2,050; aircraft 1,550; city and state public safety broadcasting exclusive 285; amateur 275.

RED CROSS ON THE JOB

Chicago, Apr. 28.—Flood refugees driven from their homes along the Mississippi and Illinois rivers were amply supplied with food and clothing today, the Central division of the Red Cross announced. Relief workers in a dozen Illinois towns, whose citizens were made destitute by overflowing streams, have the situation well in hand, it was said.

The Woman's Missionary Society of The Raleigh Christian Church will hold a chicken market, Sat. April 29th, at Wiltse's 5 and 10 Cent Store. 39:2

DOUBLE SIZE OF DURANT PLANT

Ground Broken Wednesday Noon for New Buildings; Auto Body Gets Star Body Job; New Closed Body Plant for Lansing Seen; To Add Men; Big Production Spurt Launched.

Ground was broken at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for an addition to the Lansing plant of the Durant Motor Co., which will double the floor space of the local factory and pave the way for daily production of 400 Durant Star cars and 200 four-cylinder Durant machines.

Construction of this big, new addition will provide for the employment of two-thirds more than the number of men that had originally been planned; it is announced by Carroll Downes, vice-president of the Michigan company. Contract for the construction work has been awarded to the Christman Construction Co., through its local manager, Harry Conrad.

Start Production Soon

The Lansing plant will start the manufacture of Star cars during May and work will be speeded up so that the output will total 400 cars each day by the last of August. The original plans called for the production of only 200 of these machines daily, but on checking up production figures at the New York offices of the Durant Corporation, it has been found that it will be necessary to double the output here.

In addition to the manufacture of Star cars, production has been climbing rapidly in the output of the Durant four-cylinder cars and before the end of the summer it is planned to make 200 of these machines daily.

Award Local Contracts

Contracts were to be signed Wednesday with the Auto Body Co. for the manufacture of all open car jobs for the new Star cars which will be made here.

W. V. C. Jackson, head of the Auto Body Co., has been in conference with Durant officials and is now preparing for greatly increased output of bodies at the local plant. It is assured that this Star contract alone will bring all former employees and probably many new workers to the Auto Body works.

May Mean New Factory

Though no definite announcement has been forthcoming it is predicted by motor officials high in authority, that a closed auto body plant may locate in Lansing within the next few months. This concern would manufacture closed bodies for both the Durant and Star cars and possibly for other machines.

The Durant Motor Co. owns the property from its present plant south to Michigan Ave. The property has been suggested as the probable location for such a new body plant. The Durant Co. will not own this proposed body plant, but plans to be influential in bringing such a factory to Lansing.

In addition, it is expected that the Durant Co. will announce other plans within the next few days involving such contracts as cast iron, drop forgings and other equipment designed especially for the Star car.

Building Is Under Way

The addition to the factory which was started Wednesday, is to provide an additional wing, running westward approximately 600 feet from the main building. This structure will be 100 feet wide, two stories in height and of the same modern, fireproof construction as the rest of the factory.

Other additions to the present plant will include a roof over the open space between the new addition and the shipping room. This roof will measure 200 by 600 feet and will cover shipping tracts and platforms, adding to the working floor space of the plant. The company is now cramped for truckage and a mile and a half of railroad sidings from the belt line will be installed at once.

The Christman Co. erected the present Durant plant and the structure has been pronounced by automobile experts to be one of the finest motor plants to be found anywhere in the world. Increasing the size of this plant will number it among the largest as well as the most complete buildings of its kind in the country.

Chief Engineer Here

F. W. Hohensee, president of the Durant company of New York and engineering chief of all Durant enterprises, is now at the Lansing factory. He will direct the installation of new equipment at the plant and be in charge of all engineering here.

Carl Hohensee and W. R. Rowe are now working out plans for production, upon completion of the factory addition. The Star cars will be handled in the present plant of the company with two assembling lines operating the length of the main building and finally turned into the shipping room at the south end of the plant.

When the addition is completed, the Durant four-cylinder machines will be handled through assembly lines from the new wing, into the main building and thence to the shipping room. This arrangement will provide the progressive assembly principle that is necessary for large scale production in the automobile manufacturing business.

Sales Are Growing

Increasing demand for the Durant four-cylinder machine throughout the middle western states has put the Lansing plant behind in its orders for these machines. Sales organizations are being developed in all of the larger centers and insistent orders are pouring in for more machines.

Both the new Star car and the Durant four-cylinder machine are to be manufactured in Lansing for all of the territory in the United States between the Alleghenies and the Rocky mountains. Plants in New York and California will care for eastern and far-western trade. The Toronto plant will handle Canadian and some export business.

Engines Now Being Made

The Continental Motor Corporation started the manufacture of the new engine for the Star car at Muskegon this week. These engines are to be produced at once on a basis of 200 daily and this production will be speeded up within the next few weeks, as the Continental is to make the motors for the entire Star output.

This engine was designed by the Continental company and possesses all of the refinements of the larger engines which this concern manufactures. The Star car itself, though built to sell in the Ford class as far as price is concerned, is an automobile of the type which in past years would have sold for several hundred dollars above this figure.

Manufacturing costs will be kept down by the centralized buying that is to be conducted by the New York company for all of its plants. In addition all manufacturing, engineering, and other details will be handled through New York under the personal direction of F. W. Hohensee and the Durant company. 40:1

WITHOUT STREET ADDRESS YOUR MAIL IS DELAYED AT OFFICE OF DELIVERY

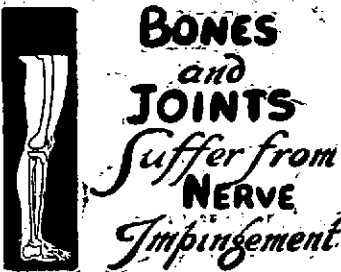

The Dead Letter Office has been in existence ever since Ben Franklin started our postal service. Even then people addressed mail to Mr. Ezekiel Smithers, "Atlantic Coast," and expected Ben to know just where Zeke lived.

Perhaps they had Zeke's address in letters up in the garret, maybe a chest full of 'em, but then it was easier to let Ben hunt Zeke. Today people are addressing letters to John Smith, New York, N. Y., or Chicago, Ill., thinking Uncle Sam can locate him, which is just as incomplete as was Zeke's address of yore. The Postoffice Department asks you to put the number and street in the address. It helps you.

Pilgrims Knew the Bible

Three hundred years ago a little band of men and women lived on faith and hard work in the forests of Massachusetts. They are known now as Pilgrims because they sailed from England to find a place to worship God without restraint. They brought their pastor with them—few modern immigrants do.

Bible Develops Character

The Pilgrims were poor and unlearned, but they knew the Bible. That knowledge developed a type of character we all admire! These first settlers would not be known to posterity had they not been so well acquainted with their Bible. Is your Bible a parlor ornament, or a study book? Read it today around the family lamp. Read it every day.
